

Big ideas. Infinite possibilities.

Science can take you anywhere! Start your journey by participating in the Bay Area Science and Engineering Fair (BASEF). Show off your ingenuity in Science, Engineering, and Technology and compete for tens of thousands of dollars in prizes. Each participant receives a goody bag and an invitation to attend an all-expenses paid Activity Day. Registration is free.

For more information or to register visit www.basef.ca.

BASEF 46th Annual Fair

March 29 – April 1, 2006

Mohawk College (Fennell Campus)

Online project registration: February 6 – March 1

Open to grades 7-12 (competitions by grade level)

Your school contact is: